You're Beautiful!

Beauty makes me happy. You've heard this phrase: "Beauty is in the eye of the beholder." We each see beauty through a different lens: we enjoy our favorite colors, appreciate our favorite meal served beautifully, or remember a classic sports moment: "What a beautiful pitch!"

What about your favorite naturally beautiful place? Maybe you stand amazed at majestic mountains, or relax at ocean waves crashing upon the shore, or sit speechless at the simple beauty of the sunrise or appreciate the beauty of our grounds as you walk the sidewalks. The wonders of the natural world display the wonder of God.

"Never lose an opportunity of seeing anything beautiful, for beauty is God's handwriting." —Ralph Waldo Emerson

Many enjoy the simple beauty of watching plants/flowers grow throughout the summer. Notice the changes over the weeks, as they soak up the water and fertilizer and sun. See the abundant blooming flowers or harvest's ripe fruit in the fall. Can we also call character beautiful?

"Beauty has a lot to do with character." —Kevyn Aucoin

God develops character qualities within us as we grow in faith. They are called the Fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, Galatians 5:22-23). These character qualities make us beautiful from the inside out. Our world is obsessed with outward beauty, but God is concerned about developing our inner beauty. We are never too old to be beautiful. Let your inner beauty shine!

"People are like stained-glass windows. They sparkle and shine when the sun is out, but when the darkness sets in, their true beauty is revealed only if there is a light from within." —Elisabeth Kubler-Ross

On this Road called Life

You have to take the good with the bad.
Smile with the Sad, Love what you have,
And remember what you had.
Always forgive, but never forget,
Learn from your mistakes, but never regret.
People change. Things go wrong.
But just remember, the ride goes on.

Now I sit me down at school,
Where praying is against the rule.
For this great nation under God,
Finds mention of Him very odd.

If Scripture now the class recites,
It violates the Bill of Rights.
And anytime my head I bow,
Becomes a Federal matter now.

Our hair can be purple, orange, or green,
That's no offense; it's a freedom scene.
The law is specific, the law is precise,
Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.

For praying in a public hall
Might offend someone with no faith at all.
In silence alone we must meditate,
God's name is prohibited by the state.

We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks,
And pierce our noses, tongues, and cheeks.
They've outlawed guns, but FIRST the Bible.
To quote the Good book makes me liable.

We can elect a pregnant Senior Queen,
And the 'unwed daddy,' our Senior King.
It's "inappropriate" to teach right from wrong,
We're taught that such "judgments" do not belong.

We can get our condoms and birth controls,
Study witchcraft, vampires, and totem poles.
But the Ten Commandments are not allowed,
No word of God must reach this crowd.

It's scary here I must confess,
When chaos reigns the school's a mess.
So, Lord, this silent plea I make:
Should I be shot; My soul please take!

Amen

The Celebrity

One day a famous old Celebrity went to a Nursing Home to see all of his friends again and see how everyone was doing.

When he got there he was immediately greeted by everyone because they recognized him instantly.

He said hi to all of his friends warmly but then noticed one man didn't say anything to him, or even give him a glance.

This was puzzling. Didn't the man know who he was? Surely he'd seen some of his movies or his TV show! He finally decided to talk to the man.

The Celebrity went up to the old man and stood in front of him, asking: "Do you know who I am"?

The old man looked at him and quickly said: "No, but you can go to the front desk, and they'll tell you".

Missing

I've hunted near, I've hunted far,
I even looked inside my car,

I've lost my glasses, I'm in need,
To have them now so I can read.

I loudly swear, and I curse,
Did I leave them in my purse?

Are they behind the sofa or under the bed?
OH! there they are - on my head!
