Because He Lives

*Because He lives, I can face tomorrow.
Because He lives, all fear is gone;
Because I know He holds the future,
And life is worth the living, just because He lives!*

These lyrics penned by Bill and Gloria Gaither emerged from a time of deep national and personal difficulties. It was the late 1960s and America was experiencing deep racial tensions plus, on an international level, the Vietnam conflict. On top of that Bill and Gloria faced their own personal troubles: she experienced an unexpected pregnancy and her husband contracted mononucleosis, which left him exhausted. Let us remember, we are not the only ones to face multiple troubles. But let us remember where our true hope rests at all times—in The Living One!

Christ has died! Christ is risen! Christ will come again!

Listen to their story behind this beloved song:

"This combination of national turmoil and personal trouble discouraged us, and we occasionally asked each other, "If the world is like this now, what will it be in fifteen or sixteen years for our baby? What will this child face?"

While pondering and praying about these things, we came to realize anew that our courage doesn't come from a stable world, for the world has never been stable. Jesus Himself was born in the cruelest of times. No, we have babies, raise families, and risk living because the Resurrection is true!

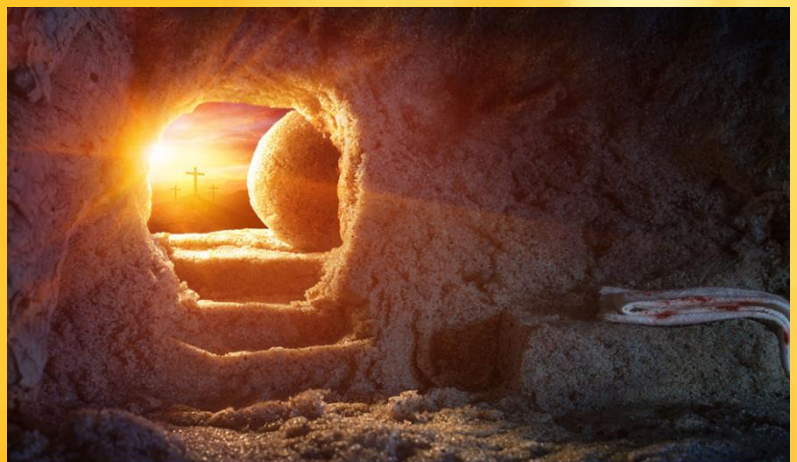

Our baby arrived safe and sound, and we named him Benjamin, which means "most beloved son." A few weeks later "Because He Lives" was born in our hearts and poured from our souls:

*How sweet to hold our newborn baby and feel the pride and joy he gives;
But greater still, the calm assurance—this child can face uncertain days because He lives.*

*Over the years this song has reassured us that our Lord's Resurrection is the central truth of life. Because He lives, we can face tomorrow.... It's "our song," but we're grateful others have loved it, too." (Morgan, Robert. Then Sings My Soul, Book 2. Nashville, Tennessee: Thomas Nelson Inc, 2004, 299.)*

This is the solid truth to embrace in these days of trouble. Christ will carry us through, He will walk with us in these challenging days. Because He lives, we celebrate Easter!!

“Hope” is the thing with feathers

by Emily Dickinson

“Hope” is the thing with feathers –
That perches in the soul –
And sings the tune without the words –
And never stops – at all –

And sweetest – in the Gale – is heard –
And sore must be the storm –
That could abash the little Bird
That kept so many warm –

I’ve heard it in the chilliest land –
And on the strangest Sea –
Yet – never – in Extremity,
It asked a crumb – of me

STILL JESUS LOVES ME

Jesus loves me, this I know,
Though my hair is white as snow.
Tough my sight is growing dim,
Still, he bids me trust in Him.

Though my steps are, oh so slow,
With my hand in His I’ll go
On through life, let come what may,
He’ll be there to lead the way.

When the nights are dark and long,
In my heart he puts a song.
Telling me in words so clear,
“Have no fear for I am near.”

When my work on earth is done
And life’s victories have been won,
He will take me home above
To learn the fullness of His love.

(Can be sung to the tune of “Jesus Loves Me.”)

Laughing Matters

The Barber

Barber: "How would you like it, sir?"

Man: "Could you cut it very short on one side and not at all on the other, with a sort of crooked fringe at the front and big tufts pulled out at the back?"

Barber: "Oh dear, I don't think I can manage that, sir"

Man: "Why not? You did it last time!"

The Captain

A pacific cruise liner was passing a small, deserted island and the passengers saw a ragged and bearded man, running up and down the beach waving wildly.

"Who on earth is that?" someone asked the captain.

"I really don't know", he replied "But he certainly enjoys our visits. He carries on like that every time we pass this way!"

The Diamond Ring

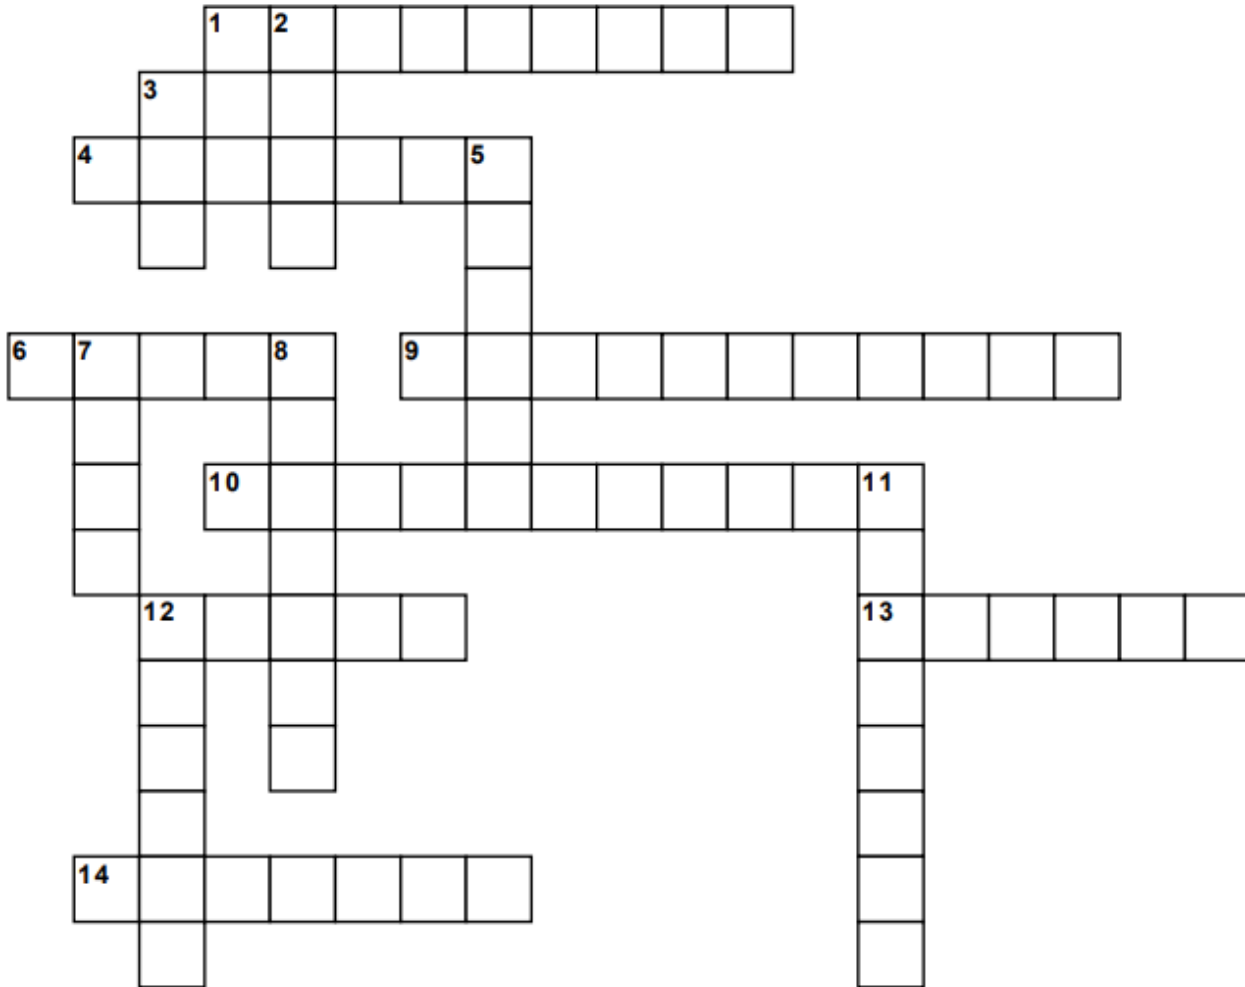

The enormous diamond ring a woman wore on a luxury cruise attracted much attention from fellow passengers.

"It's the Beaumont diamond," she told her table companions, "and like the notorious Hope diamond, it carries a terrible curse."

"What's the curse?" they asked.

"Mr. Beaumont," she explained.
